Hope For The Hurting

When there's nothing you can do, there's still something you can do.

Jesus said we would suffer in this world. As much as we would all like to avoid the pain, it's out of our hands. But we can still take steps to walk through the sorrow with peace, and even joy. Inspired by a difficult season in his own life, Tony Evans has written a new Bible study to help those experiencing challenges and those who are doing their best to support them.

~The workbooks for this study are only $14.99 plus tax. If your group is interested in this 6 week study, let us help you get the videos for free!

The Freedom of Self-Forgetfulness

By Timothy Keller

'What are the marks of a supernaturally changed heart?'

This is one of the questions the Apostle Paul addresses as he writes to the church in Corinth. He's not after some superficial outward tinkering, but instead a deep-rooted, life-altering change that takes place on the inside. In an age where pleasing people, puffing up your ego and building your resume are seen as the methods to 'make it', the Apostle Paul calls us to find true rest in blessed self-forgetfulness.
