“Jesus and The Man Born Blind”

March 6, 2022 // Pastor Tyler Scott

INTRODUCTION

It's easy to be blind to the people or the world around you. We pass by blooming flowers in the spring, kids laughing in the park, and beautiful sunsets. Sometimes it's hard to see what God wants us to see, how He wants to change us, or the action He wants us to take...as part of the miracle we want to see Him do in our life.

FOR DISCUSSION

1. What part of the message stood out to you the most? Why?
2. Share a time in your life where you truly felt “seen” by someone. How did that make you feel?
3. Sometimes the pace of life gets so busy—or we get so self-focused—that we miss “seeing” the people around us. Why is this so challenging, and what can we do about this?
4. Read John 9. What stands out to you about this story?
5. What is one “miracle” that you would like to see God do in your life? Is there an action that God wants you to take?
6. Can you think of a miracle (or healing) that God has already done in your life? Was there an action you felt He prompted you to take in relation to that miracle or healing?
7. Sometimes God wants to grow something deeper in us that only comes through a process of waiting, obeying and being faithful. Have you ever found yourself in a period of waiting on God? If so, how did you grow in that time of waiting?
8. What are 1-2 ways you can begin to apply what you learned in the message this week?

COMMIT TO MEMORY

“I don’t know whether he is a sinner,” the man replied. “But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!” John 9:25

PRAYER

Share prayer requests, and pray for one another.
