TALK

- 1) Hugh talked a lot about church as a family. Take a few moments and share a bit about your family. What did you love about your family? What was a unique struggle as you grew up?
- 2) As we think about church as a family, how can we be better “brothers” to each other and specifically to our sisters?
- 3) As we mature and grow we grow to be spiritual "fathers." What might that role look like in the church?
- 4) Hugh said, being a brother means you never give up on other family members. Are there any past relationships that you feel God may ask you to pursue?
